CLIENT FEEDBACK

"I am so grateful to be a member of CANEFRUIT Consulting with Lori Payne. She is very professional and takes the time to give each person the individualized attention that they deserve. As an actor in New York City, it can be very overwhelming with auditions, meeting people and marketing your brand to the masses. CANEFRUIT takes the time out to inform me of how many people viewed my webpage, they are up to date with the latest as it pertains to my acting career and gives the advice needed to help you grow as an artist/professional. CANEFRUIT allows you room to grow and they give you the tools to help you grow into the professional you have always dreamed you could be." -- Robert Starks, NYC Based Actor / Singer

"CANEFUIT has my project staying crunchy 24/7. Lori Payne was able to take my vision to the next level. As an artist, the big picture was always clear to me, but making it a reality was something else. CANEFRUIT brought my vision to life and created a marketing plan that highlighted the strengths of my project. We've gone from unknown to hot like babies in microwaves.
